BUSINESS NAME

PHONE EMAIL

LICENSE OR REGISTRATION NO.

SNOW REMOVAL SERVICE AGREEMENT

CUSTOMER NAME

SERVICE ADDRESS

PHONE / EMAIL

AGREEMENT DATE

SEASON STARTS / ENDS

1. AREAS AND PRICE

Areas cleared: [ ] Driveway [ ] Walks [ ] Steps [ ] Parking lot [ ] Other _____

SERVICE	PRICING (SEASONAL / PER PUSH / PER INCH / PER APPLICATION)	EVENTS	PRICE

Season total _____

Due at signing _____

Balance: [ ] by _____ [ ] monthly x _____ _____

2. Trigger depth. Service starts when snowfall at the property reaches _____ inches. Contractor may clear during a long storm and again after it ends.

3. Events and overage. A seasonal price covers _____ events. Each push after that is billed at _____.

4. Response time. Contractor clears within _____ hours after snowfall stops. Route order is Contractor's. Unsafe roads or a declared emergency may delay service.

5. Salt and ice. Ice melt is applied only when listed above or requested. Ice can form again between visits from melting, refreezing, or drifting. Contractor is not on site between visits; Customer watches walking surfaces between visits.

6. Staking and hidden objects. Contractor stakes the edges before the first snow. Customer marks sprinkler heads, lights, drains, and other hidden objects on the site map (page 2).

7. Snow piles and access. Snow is piled where page 2 shows. Hauling is extra at _____ per load. Areas blocked by parked vehicles are cleared around.

8. Turf and surfaces. Plowing can scuff lawn edges and move gravel. Conditions recorded on page 2 existed before the season. Customer reports new damage by _____, with photos.

9. Cancellation. Either party may cancel with _____ days written notice. Seasonal fees paid are [ ] prorated [ ] non-refundable.

10. Insurance. Contractor carries general liability insurance. Certificate available on request.

CUSTOMER SIGNATURE / DATE

CONTRACTOR SIGNATURE / DATE

Template by FastEstimateMaker - a starting point, not legal advice. Rules vary by state; have a local attorney review it before you rely on it.

SITE MAP AND PRE-SEASON WALKAROUND

Walked on (date) _____ with (customer) _____

SITE MAP

Sketch the driveway and walks. Mark: S = stake, P = snow pile, X = hidden object (sprinkler, light, drain, curb), D = existing damage

#	AREA OR OBJECT	EXISTING CONDITION	PHOTO TAKEN
1			[ ]
2			[ ]
3			[ ]
4			[ ]
5			[ ]
6			[ ]

Check: driveway surface and edges - pavers and walks - curbs - lawn edges - mailbox - landscape lights - sprinkler heads - drains - fences and low walls - steps and railings

We walked the property together before the season started. The conditions listed above were already present. This sheet records condition only and does not change the price or terms of the agreement.

Customer initials _____ Contractor initials _____

END OF SEASON

Stakes removed on _____

Final walk: [ ] No concerns [ ] Concerns noted: _____

Customer initials _____

Template by FastEstimateMaker - fastestimatemaker.com/templates/